Solution

The Oval. Light-filled and oriented to maximize space.

Design Notes:

- the bed is by Resource Furniture and is stored in the wall. it is raised from the ground level and the space under it will be occupied by seating.
- the bathroom is large and light-filled
- the kitchen is within the oval bend and can be masked by sliding curtains (to mute sound)
- the space by the door is for a guest bed. it can also be closed off to form a large lockable storage room. the space has many purposes.
- the large window that faces the street will have a window seat to follow the path of the oval
- the space by the small street-facing window is the office and will have a 31" monitor that will rotate on a vertical rod to serve both the living and the office space.
- insulation walls line the apartment on all sides
- radiators are concealed and will be masked by soapstone (heat-
