

1/2 bottom-up

The concept is based on square elements that fullfills on each of their inner sides an other function. By simply turning them you get access to the elements new character.

Visual Solution

Of course you can combine different sides with each other to create very individual spaces. If table elements arent needed in the current mode they can act as lights and screening displays.

UPDATE COMING SOON...

bottom up - concept

2/2

bottom-up

The concept is based on square elements that fulfill on each of their inner sides another function. By simply turning them you get access to the elements new character.

Creative's profile

dezine PRO