

1/5 Garden Rose

An elegant art deco grill.

Solution

Garden Rose is a stationary grill-kitchen in art deco style for an elegant garden made from steel, glass and marble. Metal parts are painted with powdered enamel, that makes it resistant to external conditions. The base of Garden Rose can be equipped not only with a drawer for charcoal but also with an electric or gas grill, depending on the customer's wish. The Garden Rose also has a variety of colours.
