Solution

... oriented on the microsoft logo squares, which are (will be) filled and combined with naive geometric imaginations (square, triangle, circle as basics for all pictures)
... from abstract to more visible designs... for examples faces, heart, or tools the mouse is related to - the mouse is the pen of the designer! So how many pens do you see? :)
i also added a aquarell layer, i always like a bit more structured planes more then the cleaner ones, but this could be deleted easily :)
