

1/2 You can stop corruption

you can stop corruption

Solution

This box represents the attempt to constrain the government, the business, the civil society and the daily lives of people against corruption.

- The locked door illustrates the impossibility to change bad decisions and undo illegal acts one has committed. We can also see the ballot box with a dollar bill being inserted in it. This is meant to emphasize that by voting for corrupt politicians, we help them steal our money.
- The hands rising from inside the box are caught in the act of bribing and obediently admit their crime and the stars stand for the magic through which they actually succeed in seizing power in the government.
- This party shouldn't continue any longer! We should stop it, because we decide whether to shut the
