Shapes of leaves filled with splashes of watercolor along a thin skeleton of branches.

Solution

The design is kept simple and abstract. The artificial pattern combines the fresh splashes of color on the leaves with the monochrome structure which gives the whole pattern strength and coherence. While the colorful leaves make the design cheerful, the thin structures on the other side prevent the pattern from appearing to childish. It is suitable for all women from 15 to 30. The pattern is repeating and can be continued beyond the short edges in both directions.
