

1/4 Too Hot in the Greenhouse

Solution

Hand-painted flowers succumb to the humidity of the greenhouse, melting, dripping and finally dissipating into a colorful vapor.

Why does your design stand out?

Combining hand-painted motifs with a dose of Photoshop magic puts these flowers at home in the 'artificial garden' but still suited to life among the fast fashion racks. A familiar subject--the fashion floral--but with a summery twist and shown in fun, youthful color palettes. The design is production ready--indexed and in a seamless repeat.
