

1/10 Co-creating platform

Meant to provide a contribution measure and ownership share of projects.

Solution

The person A has an idea, the B has equipment for realisation and the C has the connections to get it going. Over the platform they establish, vote and agree that A owns 2 "units", B 3 and C 4 of the project. After a while A goes to another project, B & C work hard and are joined by D the financier. A is on 2 units, B & C rise to 6 and 7 and the investment gets the D to an agreed 6. Together it's worth 21 units, so C has 1/3 of the profit, voting etc. rights. This example shows the growth model

In summary, what is your “Made on Coboat” project idea (max. 3 sentences)?

The idea is described in the description section. It would enable friends or strangers to work together on ideas, projects, ventures or companies without the fear or shadow of ownership. Everything is transparent, voted on and agreed to move on to the next phase of the project. It would allow people to truly work and create together.

How much of your project can you realistically achieve in 100 days if you will get the chance to stay on the Coboat?

With the right input from fellow co-workers, enough of their time for this project and with the right spectrum of knowledge the beta could be done on the spot... and afterwards the platform would evolve through the complexity of use.

Will you complete this project on your own, or will you be working with a together with a team?

I do not poses all the knowledge needed, a team is required, preferably the one on the boat... A designer, a programme, maybe an anthropologist...

Why should your project be chosen?

It's a game changer. It can unleash all the idle human potential out there. It can truly allow people to co-work, co-create and co-own complex projects from an idea to fully formed companies with open cards.

What does this project mean to you?

To me it means a leap from employee-employer , freelancer-customer world to a contributor society, where everybody contributes what they are best, most efficient and effective with.

Please tell us a bit about yourself and your professional background. How do you fit into a team? What have you done before within the field of your idea?

A wanna be entrepreneur. Firm believer that every person is an unpolished diamond with a talent that just has to be found. 1 + 1 is more than 2 if we open minds and hearts to others. Experience working in event management, project management, sales, start-ups marketing... Outgoing, adventure loving, openminded, extroverted, interested in everything and beyond. I forgot to mention... When I daydream, I daydream I'm on a catamaran, sailing the seas... It's my dream to have a boat one day :-)
