

1/3 The bomb is ticking

Solution

TTIP is like a timebomb that is silently being attached to our rights. It is relentlessly ticking. Threatening everything we in the EU have fought for, achieved and agreed on. The paragraph stands as a symbol for all our democratic achievements which are meant to unite us, safeguard us, bring us forward. They stand for what our politicians actually work and fight for. How can they risk their own reason for being?
