

1/3 Your Voice

To question the general conviction that one's voice doesn't count.

Solution

The poster illustrates the general conviction that one's voice is insignificant hence many people prefer to remain silent. The bold yellow line counters this saying that it DOES matter. The aim is to question the popular perception that one's voice doesn't count, to provoke people to think and take action as part of the community.

Status: 15.06.2018

2/3

Your Voice

To question the general conviction that one's voice doesn't count.

Did you use any stock or third party material? Please list all stock, fonts, and creative commons material!

Listed below

3/3

Your Voice

To question the general conviction that one's voice doesn't count.

Creative's profile

nikoleta

Nikoleta Teodosieva

Graphic designer

Sofia, Bulgaria

Creative's top 5 skills

Graphic Design